QUESTIONS & ANSWERS

Are credits earned as a non-degree seeking student transferable should I decide to formally apply for degree-seeking admission to USF? A maximum of 14 hours may be applied to an undergraduate degree program, 12 hours maximum to a graduate program.

Will I be dropped if I do not attend class? To waive the University's First Day Mandatory Attendance Policy in the event you are unable to attend the first class, express your desire to remain in class to your professor.

What if I want to be dropped? Access OASIS and drop the course you no longer wish to attend.

Can I anticipate any "registration roadblocks"? Your registration will be "on hold" only if you have not fully met immunization requirements or if you have financial obligations like library fines, outstanding tuition due or parking tickets. Hold information is available on OASIS.

Can I continue to register future terms? Your eligibility to register continues without re-applying by enrolling at least once in three consecutive semesters.

What if the course I want requires special permission? Request a permit be issued through the college or department offering the course prior to registering on OASIS.

Where can I view the Schedule of Classes? The Schedule Search is online at usfweb2.usf.edu/oasis.

Where do I obtain admissions information if I decide to become degree-seeking? The Office of Undergraduate Admissions is at 974-3350 and Graduate Admissions is at 974-8800.

What if I want to apply degree-seeking? Information is available to non-degree seeking students thinking of applying as undergraduates through Transfer Admissions Advisors located in the Office of Undergraduate Admissions, SVC 1036 or by calling (813) 974-3350.
